Lisbon, March 1, N. S. This Day the Fleet from Bahia, conſiſting of 30 Merchant-Ships, under the Convoy of two Men of War, entred this Harbour: It is already known that they are richly laden with Sugars and Tobaccos, but the Quantity of Gold on board the King's Ships cannot as yet be computed. At the ſame Time arrived a Man of War from India, which touched at the Brazils, in order to come in Company with this Fleet. By a Veſſel from Gibraltar we have Advice, that his Britannick Majeſty's Sloop Happy, which ſailed from hence for the Downes the 9th paſt, had been forced into that Port by contrary Winds.
